With an attractive High Street featuring a good range of shops and the fine tree-lined Town Green, Witney is always worth visiting. It grew rich from the wool trade in the past, leading to notable buildings like the 17th-century Buttercross and St Mary the Virgin church.

The lakes at Standlake are formed from old gravel workings, many of which are now popular for fishing and water sports.

The River Windrush runs through the village, and a scenic two-mile section of the Windrush Path links Standlake to the River Thames at Newbridge, with distinctive mosaic artworks created by the local community along the route.
